

MATTEO ANTONIO VACCARI SIGISMONDI

Matteo Antonio Vaccari Sigismondi, better known by his stage name Sigis in memory of his forefathers Sigismondo of Habsburg, was born in Milan, on the 27th of January 1978.

He always expresses his artistic and rebel side dedicating all his existence to contemporary music, to disk collecting and developing the career of professional dj first, and then producer/sound designer.

Alongside this professional skill, he uses vinyls -the soul of his career- to makes up sculptures applied to pictorial elements. In all of his artworks, recycled materials come to life with irony and love. The metamorphosis of the vinyl record takes place in different shapes as unique lacquered roses, mouthes and lips.

The oneiric and vague vinyls shape a pop language, expressing the author's poetic and his sentimental soul.

The artwork get through to Sigis, dressing his own creations: "Truth is what everybody believe to live".

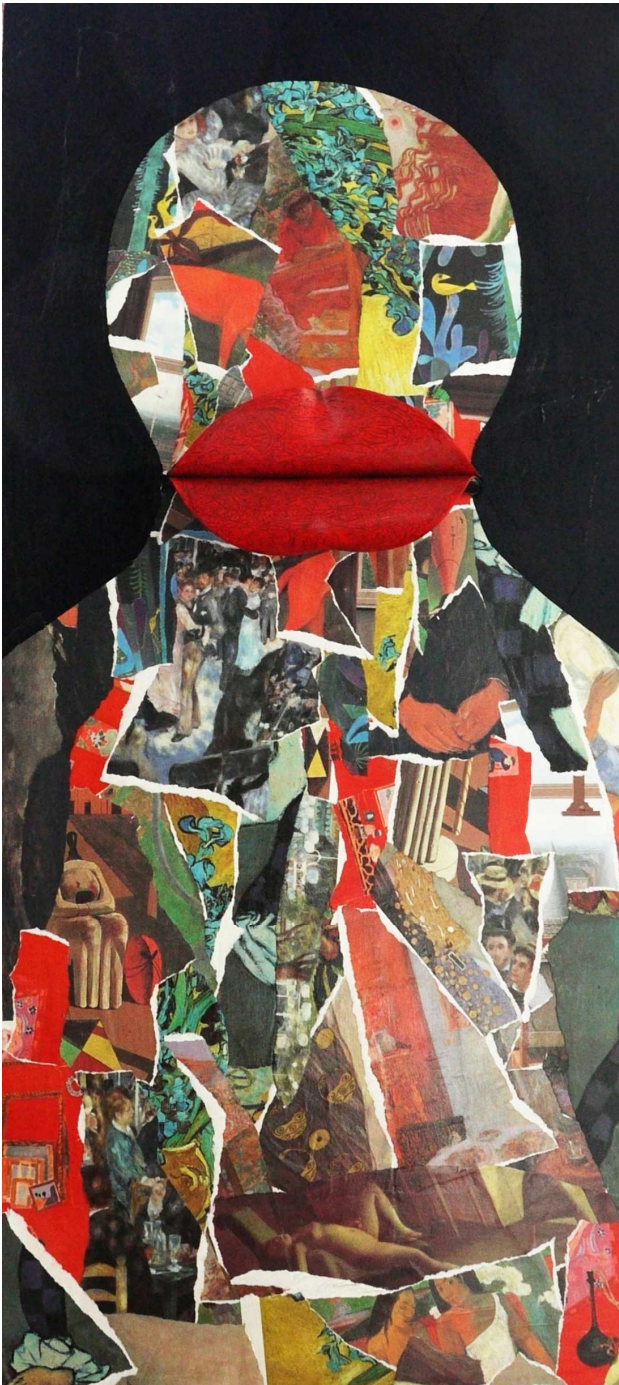

Sigis's vinyl lips exhibited into the show dedicated to Leonardo Da Vinci at the Forum Grimaldi, as the icon of communication.

Today, Sigis is one of the leading artists of the prestigious Gallery of Monaco GAM, alongside names such as Magritte, Picasso and Basquiat, Mirò, Chagall, Fontana, Haring, Wharol.
